The Einhell universal cordless saw TE-AP 18/26 Li - Solo is perfect for a wide range of applications – whether in the workshop, in the garden, or on a construction site. The tool is a member of the PXC family, so the batteries offer the freedom of cordless operation. With the anti-vibration function, even long tasks are comfortable, and the soft grip surfaces ensure ergonomic handling at all times. The cutting base plate is adjustable, which ensures optimum utilization of the saw blade (cutting depth in wood 180 mm / steel 12 mm). For faster working, the saw blade can be changed without the need for special tools. The unit is supplied with one high-quality saw blade (for wood). The rechargeable battery and charger are available separately.
